Mystery Magic in Sharon

On December 7th, our construction crew arrived at the Cayer house in Sharon to find a surprise:

A wreath and garland had been hung over the main door of the house! We don't know who did this, but we are absolutely delighted by it and we are not ruling out magic!

Our amazing volunteers regularly create wonderment on site, but this random act of kindness makes this house feel extra special this season.

Future homeowner Mindy Cayer couldn't believe it when when husband Zack showed her the decorations. "The kids and I decided it was Santa," she said.

As for the progress made on closing in the house by winter, Mindy says, "the volunteers are incredible. We can't believe the dedication of people who barely know us - we're so grateful."

We'll be working at the Cayer house on Mondays and Saturdays in January. Please join us!

FaLaLa Holiday Revue

Thank you to all the talented performers who made the 4th annual FaLaLa Holiday Revue on December 7th at the Briggs Opera House such as success!

Performers from the Rag-On Dance Studio, Upper Valley Music Center, Valley Improv, and White River Ballet Academy danced, sung, played, and joked the night away. Three Vermont film shorts were sprinkled throughout, and Revels North even made a surprise appearance to lead a sing-along!

Proceeds from the event benefited the Cayer house in Sharon. To see fabulous photos taken by Ramsey Papp and BigZig Photography, click
