GIVING TUESDAY

Happy GivingTuesday!

Waiting for a sign to donate? Here it is!

If there's ever been one particular day to make a donation, today's the day!

Today is a day dedicated to encouraging people to do good.

It's an opportunity for people around the world to come together to thank, help, give, show kindness, and share what they have with those in need.

When you give to UVHFH, you are directly supporting families like the Sargeant-Goodrich's obtain affordable housing when they otherwise would not be able to access a conventional mortgage.

Want to support but can't contribute financially? No problem!

You can sign up to volunteer, or tell a friend so they can donate or apply for homeownership.

There are many ways to show your generosity - from helping a neighbor, advocating for affordable homeownership, or sharing your skills on our build site or Board of Directors.

Everyone has something to give and every act of generosity counts. Thank you in advance for your acts of generosity in our community!
